

Dr. (cand.) Maxim Yakovenko
Far Eastern National University
Vladivostok, Russia

PROFESSIONAL BIOGRAPHY

- Born 1984, lives in Vladivostok, Russian Federation;
- He is a post-graduate student of Vladivostok Institute of International Relations, Far Eastern National University (FENU), Vladivostok, Russia;
- He is an independent researcher of the pyramids and the megalith constructions;
- He is a founder of www.world-pyramids.com web-site about the pyramids of the world and establisher of International Community of the Pyramid's Researchers;
- Since 2005 he organized some research expeditions to the megalithic sites in Primorsky Krai (Megalith of mountain Pidan, mysterious pyramid in Nakhodka);
- He organised the first research expedition to Chinese pyramids in January 2008;
- He is creating the first Russian web-site about the Bosnian pyramids in Visoko on www.world-pyramids.com;
- He is a coordinator of Far Eastern Centre of Canadian and US Studies in FENU, Vladivostok;
- He published 7 scientific papers and 2 articles for magazines about world history and international relations.